Hi Lisa,

Upon review of the questions and your comments I am going to reconsider my answer. I would not favor the appointment of somebody who is not pro choice to the human rights commission or the BRH board. I agree that choice is a human right.

Regarding reproductive health I believe it is very important for all individuals to receive reproductive health information/education. When I was growing up, our school began this education in the fourth grade. I believe it has led to healthy life choices.

Thank you for the opportunity to revise and respond.

Best regards,
Norton
