 - c. abortion services? Yes No
 - d. reproductive health and family planning education in schools and throughout the community? Yes No

Comments: I personally support all of these things, and would say so publicly if asked. But, to the extent that CBJ financial support might be involved, these issues would have to be weighed and prioritized fairly along with all other needs of the community.

QUESTIONS 14 – 15 ARE FOR ASSEMBLY CANDIDATES ONLY

14. Do you support providing family life/parenting and reproductive health education within the school district health curriculum? Yes No

Comments _____

15. Do you favor appointment of an anti-choice individual to:
a. The Juneau Human Rights Commission?
b. The Bartlett Regional Hospital Board of Directors?

Yes No QUALIFIED SEE COMMENT
Yes No

Comments: I would not absolutely rule out the appointment of a person who was not pro-choice to the Bartlett or HRC Boards. There are people who are not pro-choice but have other admirable qualifications that could be very valuable. I would want to weigh a lot of factors including the individual's willingness to uphold the law, general sense of tolerance and fairness, and non-ideological approach to public service. I definitely would not support the appointment of any individual I felt was seeking to impose their anti-choice views on others.
