8. What, in your view, are the most appropriate public policies to address the issues of teen pregnancy, Alaska's high rate of sexually transmitted infections, sexual assault and abuse, and reproductive health access for men and women?

Comments _____ Alaska's policies should be to adequately fund prevention services that are critical in funding public health and public education. Polices to fund schools in offering healthy relationships curriculum training to staff to meet Brea's law requirements. Good touch bad touch training and partnerships with other agencies to teach, such as planned parenthood. Reproductive services are adequately funding. Universal health care is so important to have and to advocate federally. Schiol counselors in our schools and funding for them. I am pleased the Alaska Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault was continued, I voted for that. I will listen to the stakeholders in this group and follow their recommendation. The Dept. of Corrections, Dept of Public Safety needs to offer more treatment and education skills for a successful re-entry. We need to continue to fund our safe houses, such as AWARE. Behavioral health, adverse childhood experiences, substance abuse treatment programs, including Capital grants for adequate facilities. Girls on the Run, Coaching Boys into Men.all have a valuable place to reducing abuse. Missing and Murdered Women and People need timely investigations.

9. How important are reproductive health rights to you personally, and why?

Comments__This is extremely important. as a woman and trained social worker, I see how complex life is and I believe each person and their family along with medical support and information should be allowed to make their own decisions based on their situation and beliefs. I swore as a Legislator to uphold the Alaska constitution which guarantees privacy rights,which includes reproductive rights.
